How to Enroll

1. Talk to your high school advisor about Early College. Get approval from your advisor and the dual enrollment advisor at your preferred City Colleges location.
2. Complete the City Colleges application at www.ccc.edu/apply. Select the option that reads: Pursue a limited amount of courses as a visiting student, personal interest, or as a dual enrollment/credit student.
3. Complete the permission and Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) disclosure forms.
4. Determine your college preparedness by reviewing your SAT/ACT scores.
 - a. For the SAT, you will need to score a 480 or above on the reading and writing portion and a 530 or above for the math portion.
 - b. For the ACT, you will need to score a 21 or above in English and a 21 or above in math.
5. If you don't meet the SAT/ACT placement standards or if you haven't taken either test, you'll need to take the CCC Read-to Write placement test and/or the ALEKS math placement test. You will need to use your City Colleges login and password to access these tests.
6. If you're interested in dual enrollment, view the schedule at apps.ccc.edu/scheduling/dual. List your top three course selections, including the name and five-digit class number, below:
 1.
 2.
 3.
7. Submit your application with all required parental and counselor signatures.
